

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

-v-

STANDARD WOOD COMPANY, et al.,

Defendants.

20-MC-0113 (JMF)

ORDER

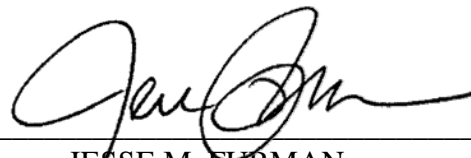

JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

The United States of America — as part of the Department of Justice Antitrust Division’s “Judgment Termination Initiative” — moves for termination of the final judgment entered on March 11, 1912, by Acting Judge Alfred C. Coxe in United States of America v. Standard Wood Company, et al., In Equity No. 8-99. The Government’s decision to expend its resources on — and, by extension, to burden the Court with — this effort is somewhat mystifying, as it is unclear what harms are caused by leaving in place a 108-year-old consent decree against eighteen people, all of whom are presumably long dead, and relating to five bundled kindling wood and press manufacturers, some of which may no longer exist. What’s done is done, however, and the Court agrees, substantially for the reasons set forth in the Government’s memorandum of law, that there is no reason to leave in place a final judgment that is effectively, if not actually, moot. Accordingly, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the final judgment in In Equity No. 8-99 is hereby terminated.

The Clerk of Court is directed to close this case.

SO ORDERED.
